

Study: IRB202100113 | Research Script

Brief introduction

This project revolves around the collection of student personal narratives, aka “stories”, as a way to document Black student experiences at UF. We’re interested in hearing your personal story (be it negative or positive) around three themes: anti-Black racism, representation and social support as a Black student at UF. Feel free to share a story/stories related to one or all three. Below are a list of prompts you can use to help think about the story you want to share. You may choose to focus on one or multiple prompts to guide you, but keep in mind there’s a 10 minute time limit on the audio you submit.

Prompts

- What is it like to be a Black student at UF?
- Using your personal experience as a guide, how would you recommend or discourage a fellow Black student to attend UF and why?
- Describe an interaction with a course instructor, a faculty member, staff, or another student, in which you perceived your race was a factor in the outcome, be it negative or positive.
- Tell us a time on campus where you felt uncomfortable being a Black student at UF
- Tell us a time on campus where you felt a sense of pride and belonging about being a Black student at UF.

to be read before you begin your story

- My name is
- I DO or DO NOT consent to the study team publicly archiving audio of my responses to be used for creative educational public programming (i.e. podcasts, radio broadcasts, etc.).
- I was born in (City, State, Country i.e. Gainesville, FL, U.S.):
- Describe your cultural/heritage background: I am a (i.e. Black American, half Jamaican and half Ecuadorian, etc.)
- Before coming to UF, I attended a (i.e. predominantly white, multicultural, all black, etc.) high school.

Begin your story (not to exceed more than 10 min)

SCAN QR code to take post-survey

